

TEA SAUSAGE OR TEEWURST

Teewurst is made from finely ground pork and belongs to the scattered fresh sausages. Other varieties are called Pfeffersäckchen, or literally small bags of pepper, minced ham sausage and onion-flavored minced pork sausage. The best-known variety is a variety made according to a traditional Brunswick or Streichmettwurst nach Braunschweiger Art recipe.

These products contain more fat than their most sliced counterparts, which makes them spread.
