

PINCONNING CHEESE

Pinconning cheese is a Colby-style cheese originally produced in the city that bears the name in the state of Michigan.

The Pinconning cheese was created in 1915 by cheesemaker Dan Horn as a mature version of Colby.

The Pinconning cheese has a cream flavor and the texture of the cheese is interesting and is used in cooking in the preparation of pasta and souffle recipes.