

OVELHA DAS VERTENTES CHEESE

Ovelha das Vertentes cheese is produced in Itapeccerica in the Minas Gerais region of southwest of Brazil from sheep's milk and has a complex flavor that ranges from bitter to slightly spicy.

Ovelha das Vertentes cheese has three times more protein than cow's milk cheese, much more calcium and vitamin C, and is often well tolerated by allergic people.